About AI

AI is the future as stated by Richest man in the world Elon Musk. AI is a revolutionary piece of technology capable of processing complex structures of logic and having a chain of thoughts. It is the process of making machines capable of learning and understanding behaviors.

Teaching students and making AI models is somewhat similar as the fundamental of both of them is making sure the party understands it.